

Transporting the Public Statewide Action Planning Forum

Join a diverse group of stakeholders to identify ways Vermont can have a more robust system for transporting the public.

A convergence of factors — changing demographics, environmental impacts, fluctuating gas prices, and transportation funding shortfalls — make this an opportune time to rethink and transform our system for transporting the public.

Hosted by AARP Vermont and Co-Conveners:

Smart Growth Vermont, UVM Transportation Research Center, Vermont Association of Area Agencies on Aging, Vermont Association of Planning and Development Agencies, Vermont Center for Independent Living, Vermont Natural Resources Council
